HIGHWAY IS WANTED

A highway connecting the sidure of Garfield with Asacostia is the desire of the citizens of the former suburh, and a special committee will wait on the Commissioners to present the matter. Three separate condemnation cases were instituted yesterday in the District courts for the acquisition of property in Anacostia for public purposes. The most important was that which eventually will give the government control of the riparian rights along the Bastera Branch, between the Anacostia and Panneylvania areane bridges. Another livolved the property necessary for the extension of Mount View place through to Talbert street from Morris road, and the third will give the government the ownership of the mail triangle at Minessota avenue, Birtsenth and T streets, the intention being to use this for park purposes. Mineola Tribe, No. 14, Improved Order of Red Men. of Anacostis, met last evening in Masonith Hall, with Edward Blafins, suchem, in the chair. Degree work was accommissed and along the Masonith Hall.
